One account was selected by our portfolio manager as a representative account that generally represents a good illustration of the investment management style. Voya Investment Management Co. LLC ("Voya IM") did not use performance as the basis for determining which account to include. These holdings represent only a sample portfolio and may not reflect the actual holdings managed by Voya IM in any other particular portfolio. The performance of other portfolios may be better or worse than that of this sample portfolio. Past performance is not indicative of future results.
